Chapter 1: The Providence Prophecy

The ancient prophecy

In the annals of history, there are countless tales of prophecies—divinations of the future that have shaped the course of human events. Some prophecies are vague and open to interpretation, while others are startlingly specific. But there is one prophecy that stands apart from all the others: the Providence Prophecy.

The Providence Prophecy is said to have been uttered by the gods themselves, and it foretells the coming of a great darkness that will threaten to consume the world. But the prophecy also speaks of a group of heroes who will rise up to meet this darkness and save the world from its clutches.

The heroes of the prophecy are said to come from all walks of life. They will be warriors, wizards, rogues, and priests. They will be young and old, male and female. But they will all share one common trait: they will be chosen by the gods to save the world.

The Providence Prophecy has been passed down from generation to generation, and it has been the inspiration for countless stories and legends. But the prophecy is more than just a story—it is a warning. It is a warning that the darkness is coming, and that only the heroes of the prophecy can stop it.

The heroes of the prophecy have not yet been born, but they will come. And when they do, the world will be ready for them.

The chosen ones

In the annals of history, there have always been those who are chosen for greatness. They are the ones who possess the courage, the strength, and the wisdom to stand against the darkness and fight for what is right.

In the world of Providence, the chosen ones are known as the Sentinels. They are a group of brave warriors, wise sages, cunning rogues, skilled healers, and mysterious outsiders who have been called upon to protect the world from the forces of evil.

The Sentinels come from all walks of life, but they are united by their common goal: to protect the innocent and defeat the forces of darkness. They are a diverse group, but they are bound together by their shared experiences and their unwavering commitment to justice.

The Sentinels are the chosen ones, and they are the only ones who can save the world from the forces of evil. They are the heroes of Providence, and they will not rest until the darkness is defeated.

The Sentinels are a beacon of hope in a world that is often dark and dangerous. They are a reminder that even in the darkest of times, there is always hope. They are the chosen ones, and they will not fail.
