

NYC Media Locations

Introduction

NYC Media Locations is the ultimate guide to New York City's most iconic media locations. From the bustling streets of Manhattan to the charming neighborhoods of Brooklyn and Queens, this book takes you on a journey through the city's rich cinematic and television history.

Whether you're a lifelong New Yorker or a first-time visitor, this book will help you discover the hidden gems and iconic landmarks that have been featured in your favorite films and TV shows. From the brownstone steps of Seinfeld's apartment to the glittering skyscrapers of Gossip Girl, from the cobblestone streets of Sex and the City to the vibrant storefronts of Friends, this book has something for everyone.

Inside, you'll find:

- Over 200 locations from your favorite films and TV shows, including Friends, Seinfeld, Will and Grace, When Harry Met Sally, Scent of a Woman, Breakfast at Tiffany's, Sweet Home Alabama, Spiderman, You've Got Mail, Working Girl, and dozens more.
- Detailed descriptions of each location, including its address, history, and significance in popular culture.
- Insider tips on how to visit each location, including public transportation options and nearby attractions.
- Stunning full-color photographs of each location, bringing the city to life on the page.
- A handy map of each neighborhood, making it easy to plan your own self-guided tour.

Whether you're a film buff, a TV addict, or simply a lover of New York City, NYC Media Locations is the perfect guide to the city's most iconic media locations.

So what are you waiting for? Grab your copy today and start exploring!

Book Description

NYC Media Locations is the ultimate guide to New York City's most iconic media locations. From the bustling streets of Manhattan to the charming neighborhoods of Brooklyn and Queens, this book takes you on a journey through the city's rich cinematic and television history.

Whether you're a lifelong New Yorker or a first-time visitor, this book will help you discover the hidden gems and iconic landmarks that have been featured in your favorite films and TV shows. From the brownstone steps of Seinfeld's apartment to the glittering skyscrapers of Gossip Girl, from the cobblestone streets of Sex and the City to the vibrant storefronts of Friends, this book has something for everyone.

Inside, you'll find:

- Over 200 locations from your favorite films and TV shows, including Friends, Seinfeld, Will and Grace, When Harry Met Sally, Scent of a Woman, Breakfast at Tiffany's, Sweet Home Alabama, Spiderman, You've Got Mail, Working Girl, and dozens more.

- Detailed descriptions of each location, including its address, history, and significance in popular culture.
- Insider tips on how to visit each location, including public transportation options and nearby attractions.
- Stunning full-color photographs of each location, bringing the city to life on the page.
- A handy map of each neighborhood, making it easy to plan your own self-guided tour.

Whether you're a film buff, a TV addict, or simply a lover of New York City, NYC Media Locations is the perfect guide to the city's most iconic media locations.

So what are you waiting for? Grab your copy today and start exploring!

NYC Media Locations is the perfect companion for your next trip to New York City. With its detailed descriptions, insider tips, and stunning photography, this book will help you make the most of your visit and experience the city like never before.

Whether you're a lifelong New Yorker or a first-time visitor, NYC Media Locations is the essential guide to the city's most iconic media locations.

Chapter 1: Iconic Film Locations

Central Park

Central Park is one of the most iconic and beloved public spaces in the world. It has been featured in countless films and TV shows over the years, serving as a backdrop for everything from romantic comedies to action thrillers.

One of the most famous scenes filmed in Central Park is the ice skating scene from "Home Alone 2: Lost in New York." In the scene, Kevin McCallister (Macaulay Culkin) skates through the park, dodging obstacles and evading the bumbling Wet Bandits. The scene is a classic example of the park's beauty and charm, and it has helped to make Central Park one of the most recognizable landmarks in the world.

Another famous scene filmed in Central Park is the boat race scene from "When Harry Met Sally." In the scene, Harry Burns (Billy Crystal) and Sally Albright (Meg Ryan) are rowing a boat on the lake when they get into a fight. The scene is a pivotal moment in the film, and it perfectly captures the park's beauty and serenity.

Central Park has also been featured in many other films and TV shows, including "Breakfast at Tiffany's," "The Avengers," "Gossip Girl," and "Sex and the City." The park is a popular destination for tourists and locals alike, and it is a great place to relax, enjoy the outdoors, and see some of the city's most famous landmarks.

Here are some other famous films and TV shows that have featured Central Park:

- The Godfather (1972)
- Kramer vs. Kramer (1979)
- Tootsie (1982)
- Wall Street (1987)
- Goodfellas (1990)
- Sleepless in Seattle (1993)

- You've Got Mail (1998)
- Elf (2003)
- Enchanted (2007)
- The Amazing Spider-Man (2012)
- Birdman or (The Unexpected Virtue of Ignorance) (2014)
- Spider-Man: Homecoming (2017)

Central Park is a truly iconic location, and it is no wonder that it has been featured in so many films and TV shows. The park is a beautiful and versatile setting, and it can be used to create a wide variety of different moods and atmospheres. Whether you are a fan of film, TV, or simply beautiful scenery, Central Park is a must-see destination.

Chapter 1: Iconic Film Locations

The Plaza Hotel

The Plaza Hotel is one of New York City's most iconic landmarks, and it has been featured in countless films and TV shows over the years. From its grand ballroom to its luxurious suites, the Plaza has served as a backdrop for some of the most memorable moments in cinematic history.

One of the most famous scenes filmed at the Plaza Hotel is the ballroom scene in Alfred Hitchcock's "North by Northwest" (1959). In this scene, Cary Grant's character, Roger Thornhill, is mistaken for a government agent and is pursued by a group of assassins. The scene culminates in a thrilling chase through the ballroom, with Thornhill narrowly escaping his pursuers.

Another memorable scene filmed at the Plaza Hotel is the breakfast scene in "Breakfast at Tiffany's" (1961). In this scene, Audrey Hepburn's character, Holly Golightly, has breakfast in her apartment overlooking Central Park. The scene is both iconic and heartwarming, and it perfectly captures the glamour and sophistication of New York City in the 1960s.

In more recent years, the Plaza Hotel has been featured in films such as "Home Alone 2: Lost in New York" (1992), "The Great Gatsby" (2013), and "Ocean's 8" (2018). The hotel's timeless elegance and grandeur make it a popular choice for filmmakers, and it is sure to continue to be featured in iconic films and TV shows for years to come.

The Plaza Hotel is located at 768 Fifth Avenue in Manhattan. It was built in 1907 and has been designated a New York City landmark. The hotel has 282 rooms and suites, and it is known for its luxurious amenities and its impeccable service.

Chapter 1: Iconic Film Locations

The Empire State Building

The Empire State Building is one of the most iconic buildings in the world, and it has been featured in countless films and TV shows over the years. From King Kong to Sleepless in Seattle, the Empire State Building has played a starring role in some of the most memorable moments in cinematic history.

One of the most famous scenes featuring the Empire State Building is the climactic battle between King Kong and the biplanes in the 1933 film King Kong. The scene is still considered one of the most iconic moments in film history, and it helped to cement the Empire State Building's status as a pop culture icon.

In the 1987 romantic comedy Sleepless in Seattle, the Empire State Building is the setting for the film's most iconic scene. Sam Baldwin (Tom Hanks) stands atop the building and proclaims his love for Annie Reed (Meg Ryan), who is listening from her apartment across the street. The scene is a classic moment in romantic comedy, and it helped to make the Empire State Building a symbol of love and longing.

The Empire State Building has also been featured in countless other films and TV shows, including:

- An Affair to Remember (1957)
- Breakfast at Tiffany's (1961)
- Superman (1978)
- Saturday Night Fever (1977)
- Home Alone 2: Lost in New York (1992)
- Independence Day (1996)
- Elf (2003)
- I Am Legend (2007)
- The Avengers (2012)

The Empire State Building is more than just a building; it is a symbol of New York City and of the American spirit. It is a building that has inspired countless dreams and has been the setting for some of the most iconic moments in cinematic history.

This extract presents the opening three sections of the first chapter.

Discover the complete 10 chapters and 50 sections by purchasing the book, now available in various formats.

Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Iconic Film Locations - Central Park - The Plaza Hotel - The Empire State Building - The Brooklyn Bridge - Grand Central Terminal

Chapter 2: TV Show Hotspots - Seinfeld's Apartment - The Friends Apartment - The Cheers Bar - The Sex and the City Apartment - The Office

Chapter 3: Literary Landmarks - The New York Public Library - The Strand Bookstore - The Algonquin Hotel - Caffe Reggio - The McSorley's Old Ale House

Chapter 4: Musical Venues - Carnegie Hall - The Apollo Theater - The Metropolitan Opera - The Blue Note - The Village Vanguard

Chapter 5: Art and Culture - The Metropolitan Museum of Art - The Museum of Modern Art - The Whitney Museum of American Art - The Guggenheim Museum - The Brooklyn Museum

Chapter 6: Historical Sites - The Statue of Liberty - Ellis Island - The 9/11 Memorial - The Federal Hall National Memorial - The African Burial Ground National Monument

Chapter 7: Off-the-Beaten-Path Gems - The Tenement Museum - The Museum of the Moving Image - The Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum - The New York Transit Museum - The Museum of the City of New York

Chapter 8: Brooklyn Delights - The Brooklyn Botanic Garden - The Brooklyn Heights Promenade - The Coney Island Boardwalk - The Smorgasburg Food Market - The Brooklyn Flea

Chapter 9: Queens Essentials - The Flushing Meadows Corona Park - The Queens Museum - The Socrates Sculpture Park - The Gantry Plaza State Park - The Museum of the Moving Image

Chapter 10: Staten Island Surprises - The Staten Island Ferry - The Snug Harbor Cultural Center - The

Staten Island Zoo - The Historic Richmond Town - The Alice Austen House

This extract presents the opening three sections of the first chapter.

Discover the complete 10 chapters and 50 sections by purchasing the book, now available in various formats.